Florida, as Second Class Matter.

Pull for Daytona, or pull out for some other town.

For President: William Randolph Heard, of New York.

What's the matter with Booker T.
Washington as a running mate for Teddy?

Charlie Daugherty and "Jeems" Alexander both claim they will carry Volusia county—another case of someone mistaken.

Nassau county is next in line to have a "wet and dry" election on the 13th of this month. It will soon be "Good By Booze" all over Florida.

Frank Clark, the candidate for Congress for the Second District, who had from Lake City, is a branny and brilliant man and will keep the campaign red hot.

Why don't some of the pepper box politicians say "hypnotized" instead of "subsidized" newspapers? The Gazette-News has not found any here sticking around the office doorknob.

A movement is on foot to have William B. Hearst as one of the attractions at the Jacksonville Carnival next month.
Besides being a celebrated newspaper man, Mr. Hearst is looking up as a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, and should be a drawing card.

The Chamberlain Medicine Company, in sending a check for its quarterly advertising bill enclosed therewith a handsome pocketbook with their compliments. We thank our Des Moines friends for the gift, but what in the name of Cromwell do they suppose an editor is going to do with a pocketbook.

The Sanford Chronicle says that hundreds of Florida's enterprising citizens will go to St. Louis to attend the great Exposition which opens in that city on the 1st of May, 1904. This is another very good reason why the primaries should be held at an early date—not later than the 15th of June.

We are under obligations to Walter Hawkins, General Agent for the Central of Georgia Railway, for a geographically correct map of Georgia and Alabama. A copy of this valuable and useful little map may be obtained by sending 2 cents in stamps to J. C. Hulse, General Passenger Agent, Savannah, Ga., or to Walter Hawkins, General Agent, Jacksonville, Fla.

The Ocala Banner says the following is posted in the hat of a "Weary Willie" of that enterprising little city: "Early to bed and early to rise does very well with preachers and guys, but makes a man miss all the fun till he dies and joins the old stiff that are up in the skies. Go to bed when you please and be at your ease, and you'll die just the same of a Latin disease."

The Orlando Sentinel-Reporter remarks that a storekeeper not a great way from Orlando, in attempting to move a barrel of linseed oil the other day, broke off the saucer and was compelled to hold his hand over the bung hole for three quarters of an hour before a customer came in and assisted him. Had the storekeeper been a regular advertiser the customer would have been there when the accident happened.

There is only one way to advertise, and that is to hammer your name, your location, so persistently, so thoroughly into the people's heads that if they walk during the time they sleep they will unconsciously turn to your store. The newspaper man is your best friend in spite of your criticism. It helps to build up the community which supports you.
When the day comes that the newspapers are dead, the people will be near their grave with no one to write their epitaph.—John Wannamaker.

A Bartow man invited his friends to attend a reception. When they arrived, a barrel of beer was found to be the principal feature of the entertainment.
After the beer had been consumed, the hat was passed and 50 cents contributed to the "expenses" by each guest.
The court held that the unique "reception" constituted an illegal sale of liquor, and the host was sent to the jail for sixty days. "Blind Tiger Socials" will cease to be popular in Polk.

Cures Winter Cough.
J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main St., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long.
Last fall I got for her a bottle of Horseshoe Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long.
Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stop the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c, $1.

An Old Favorite

THE BROOK

By Lord Tennyson

By thirty hills I hurry down, Or slip between the ridges;
By twenty thorps, a little town,
And half a hundred bridges.

Till last by Philip's farm I flow
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

I chatter over stony ways,
In little sharps and trebles; I bubble into eddying bays, I babble on the pebbles.

With many a curve my banks I fret By many a field and fallow;
And many a fairy forlorn set With willow-weed and mallow.

I chatter, chatter, as I flow
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

I wind about, and in and out,
With here a blossom sailing, And here and there a lusty trout,
And here and there a grayling.

And here and there a foamy flake Upon me, as I travel;
With many a silvery waterbreak Above the golden gravel;

And draw them all along, and flow
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

I steal by lawns and grassy plots;
I slide by hazel covers;
I move the sweet forget-me-nots, That grow for happy lovers.

I slip I slide, I glisten, I glance Among my skimming swallows; I make the soft sunbeams dance Against my sandy shallows.

I murmur under moon and stars, In brambly wildernesses;
I linger by my shingly bars;
I loiter under my cresses;

And out again I curve and flow,
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless." Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it. Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by all druggists.

One firm of horse breeders at Columbus, O., will exhibit at the World's Fair a stable of seventeen Percheron horses valued at $60,000.

Saved His Life.

J. W. Ince, of Wingo, Ky., writes: June 11, 1902. "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly damaged. I also had a large pneumonia. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief, two or three bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00.

Among the interesting exhibits shown by Arizona at the World's Fair will be an ostrich farm.

Could Not Lie On

Left Side.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

Mrs. H. R. Jobe, formerly of Birmingham, Ala., writes from Eldridge, the same state, as follows:
"It is with the greatest pleasure that I recommend Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure. I only wish that I could tell every sufferer how good they have done me.
Last winter I had a severe attack of lagrippe, which left my heart in a very bad condition. I could not lie down for the smothering spells that would almost overcome me and the feeling of oppression around my heart. I had not been so that I could lie on my left side for a long time. I got your Heart Cure and took three bottles.
I have no trouble now with my heart and can lie on my left side as well as my right.
Formerly I had suffered for years with nervous prostration. I had tried so many remedies that I had got clear out of heart of getting anything that would help me. The nervine of my heart were so affected that sometimes it would lose beats so it would seem to stop altogether. It was on the advice of a lady friend that I tried your Restorative Nervine. I felt better after the first few doses and two bottles of Nervine and one of Heart Cure made me feel like a new person. My heart is all right and my nervousness is all gone. I never fail to recommend it to others afflicted as I was."
